Maplewood

With Textures by Linda Ludovico

Inspired by Helene Knott's original quilt, Maplewood reflects the abundant nature surrounding her Portland home. The patterns have been created in the legendary Stonehenge style contributing to the rich textural appearance of the designs. The exquisitely detailed panel featuring a maple tree winding through the canvas plays a starring role in the collection. The full width ombre leaf and ombre texture prints provide lots of options for impactful quilt designs. An array of prints highlighting maple leaves and maple keys along with a wide selection of textures complete the collection. It is offered in two distinct color palettes; Scarlet and Woodland.
