Quilting in Bloom

by Lorelai Kuecker

Quilting in Bloom is the debut collection of up and coming, talented teen quilter, long armer and fashion designer, Lorelai Kuecker who is taking the market by storm with her fresh approach to traditional quilting inspiring quilters and sewist of all ages. The collection features fresh florals combined with her signature feathers and swirls which become part of the print. Quilting in Bloom includes a variety of charming mix and match multi-directional prints in fresh vibrant hues including pink, persimmon, turquoise and white with green and yellow accents. A selection of Colorworks Premium Solids coordinates beautifully with the collection.
