Widely grown since ancient times, Lavender's lovely purple blooms and soothing scent continues to endure and inspire people worldwide. Created by Deborah Edwards, Lavender Market 3 offers a wide selection of new lavender prints. The addition of yellow and white daises, as well as honeybees add a cheerful complement to the mix of tossed prints. The featured border stripe is ideal for a border or triangle frenzy project while the barcode stripe offers relief from the florals and provides an interesting binding for any project. A palette of black, purple, lavender, mustard, yellow and white are featured in the collection. A selection of Colorworks Premium Solids completes the coordination.
