Falcon Ridge

by Andrew Denman

The stunning Gyr Falcon is the largest falcon worldwide, a mighty hunter that soars from the arctic to the sub tundra. Distinguished artist, Andrew Denman’s first fabric collection, Falcon Ridge uncovers the beauty and majesty of the Gyr Falcon. The sophisticated panel and coordinates are characterized by Andrew’s unique textural layered style featuring complex neutrals. The dash of mustard complements the variety of mix and match textures and coordinates offered in contrasting neutral values. Whether a quilt or wall-hanging, whether modern or traditional, this stunning group offers sophistication and refinement to any room.
