Get ready for some fast action with Northcott's Turbo Speed. The featured racetrack panel makes an ideal playmat or focal point for a quilt. The running yardage block print can be used as is or, deconstructed and put into blocks while the dynamic racing stripe makes an ideal border to complete your quilt. A variety of mix and match coordinates including tossed car prints, inspirational words, and racing checks are offered in a primary palette including red, orange yellow, blue and green with accents in black, white, and gray. A selection of premium Colorworks solids complete the collection.
