Morning Light

by Deborah Edwards and Melanie Samra

Created by Deborah Edwards and Melanie Samra in their signature alcohol ink technique, Morning Light is a breath of fresh air. The delicate multicolored textures combined with foliage create complex designs with sophisticated style. The two full-width prints are running yardage offering copious creative possibilities. A selection of trees, multi-directional leafy prints and exquisite textures are featured in lively spring hues in blue, green, turquoise, yellow and white. In addition, a quick sew bag is offered; use it as is or deconstruct it to use in a quilt, toss pillow or seat cushion. A selection of existing Bliss Blenders coordinate beautifully with Morning Light.
