Allure

by Deborah Edwards and Melanie Samra

Peacocks have been cherished for their opulent feathers and striking iridescent color for centuries. Though originally from Southeast Asia, they have been coveted worldwide for more than four thousand years. Created by design duo, Deborah Edwards and Melanie Samra, Allure invites you to share in the fascination of this magnificent bird in stunning shades of azure, teal, turquoise, and purple with accents in yellow and ochre. Allure is beautifully painted in alcohol ink creating subtle tints, tones, shades and multi-blended hues. The show-stopping panel plays a starring role with a supporting cast of feathers in various sizes and colors. A wide range of stunning textures and stripes in light, medium and dark values offer infinite creative possibilities.
