HOME ON THE RANGE

by Chad Poppleton

Featuring the art of renowned wildlife painter Chad Poppleton, Naturescapes, Home on the Range celebrates the resurgence North American buffalo numbered more than 60 million in the late 18th century though by the late 19th century, due to commercial hunting their numbers were reduced to 500. In recent years they have increased to over 31,000 and have been removed from the endangered species list; this is truly a cause for celebration. Home on the Range features roaming buffalo in the running yardage block print, border stripe and all-over scenic. Complementing the focal prints are textures inspired by the surrounding landscape in a natural palette of restful browns, greens, and blues.
