

COVENT GARDEN

Garden Traditions • 57" x 68" • By Sue Harvey & Sandy Boobar of Pine Tree Country Quilts

Inspired by paintings from the 17th century Dutch Golden Age, Covent Garden by Deborah Edwards evokes the beautifully rendered still life flowers that were a hallmark of the era. This collection of exquisitely detailed florals offers a 28" panel, border stripe and tossed blenders, in a variety of vivid colors. Delicate white on white and black on black, barcode stripe and coordinating stone textures complete the collection, making for infinite possibilities of your floral-themed quilts.

Covent Garden arrives in stores this month. Check with your local quilt store to see if they are carrying it, and view the full collection at www.northcott.com
